Each Office is Independently Owned and Operated

This building plot of 725 m² is located in a picturesque seaside village near Rogoznica. It stands out with its exceptional seafront location and peaceful and relaxing environment. This unique plot is ideal for constructing a luxury villa that will provide future owners with an authentic Mediterranean experience with absolute privacy. Among the many benefits of this land, it is worth mentioning the proximity of Rogoznica, one of the most beautiful marinas in this part of the Adriatic, and the international airport of Split. All the necessary facilities and popular cities with rich cultural and historical heritage, numerous tourist attractions, and natural beauties are in the immediate vicinity. Almost untouched nature and beautiful beaches are just some of the reasons tourists from all over the world visit this area, and many choose it to build holiday properties. Due to the attractive seafront location and open sea view, it should be emphasized that this is truly a rare opportunity in the market. The future investor has excellent options in planning property construction, whether for private or business purposes.
