Villa Aurora is a refined holiday property set within a luxurious complex of villas, just 800 meters from the coast in picturesque Istria, a beautiful Mediterranean region, widely recognized as one of the top destinations for peaceful holidays and several renowned attractions, as well as scenic nature intertwined with medieval hilltop towns. This modern property comprises four bedrooms and four bathrooms located on the ground and upper floor, with an imposing staircase connecting the two. There is a gorgeous sea view from the upper floor terrace and balcony to the west coast of Istria and Italy in the background. The open space living room with dining room and kitchen opens into a lovely green patio with the swimming pool with lounge area and sun decks, and the outside dining area has a barbeque zone. This remarkable property offers an idyllic blend of traditional Istrian architecture and the unrivaled Italian luxury art deco style and interior design. There is no detail left unthought-of when it comes to interior design: only the best of materials, decorations, and furnishings have been used, and the villa exudes harmonious luxury at every step. The villa is located just 5 minutes drive away from Novigrad, a peaceful tourist town on the west coast known for its excellent dining experience, and 10 minutes from Poreč, a tourist hub with a vibrant beach, club, and restaurant scene.
